

WOMAN CAUGHT JACK THE OIL-THROWER.

Mrs. Dull Captured Man Who Ruined Her Gown--Held for Trial.

MRS. HELEN DULL.

John Wunderlich, tall, thin, angular, with deep-set eyes and bristling hair, induced in the pleasing pastime of squirting lubricating oil on a lady's theatre gown and was held in $500 bail by Magistrate Brown, in Jefferson Market Police Court, this morning, to answer before the Grand Jury and the Court of General Sessions for the felony of malicious mischief, with two to five years in Sing Sing as the penalty.

CAUGHT THE RASCAL.

The plump and petite Mrs. Dull proved that her nature was not like her name by catching the miscreant here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dull were returning to the Murray Hill Hotel from the Knickerbocker Theatre last night. Arrived at the hotel she found that the back breadth of her $125 imported Hoss gown of silk, striped in white and heliotrope, was yellow and saturated with oil, and the $35 white silk petticoat underneath was ruined, too.

She remembered that a beardless man and a fox terrier had hung about them all the way home, and quickly changing her gown, she coaxed hubby to go with her sleuthing for the fellow.

They found a big oil stain on the sidewalk 100 feet from the hotel. They retraced their steps to the theatre, telling policemen along the way of the outrage and describing the man and the dog.

Patrolman Dolan caught him in Bryant Park. He had a small "oller" in his pocket, and it was money and a gold watch.

MISCREANT IS QUEER.

The man was John Wunderlich, thirty-one years old, of 225 West Thirty-eighth street. He is not exactly crazy, nor imbecile, but just "queer." He told the policeman something about having a larger office under a truck from which to sell the pocket oiler, but this morning decided this to an Evening World reporter.

"I am a piano-action man in a piano factory," said he. "I don't know why I throw oil on the lady. I was doing home when this devil got in me to do it."

"He's only half-witted, Your Honor," said Lawyer Mark Lowenstein, when the oiler was arraigned.

"Did you ever have any trouble with this man?" asked Magistrate Brown.

"Dear, no! I never saw him before in my life," replied Mrs. Dull in astonishment at the question.

"Oh, well, then there must be something wrong with him," commented the Magistrate consolingly.

"Not so half-witted but that he can earn money, and he's a very bad man," rejoined the lady.

"I'll hold him for the Grand Jury," said the Court, and when a bystander suggested that that was probably the end of it because the lady would hardly say a month or return from Meadville to prosecute him, here and see it through, or if it's too long, I'll come to New York for his trial. This is a dangerous man, and it is my duty to society to prosecute him."

The lady wore a pretty creation in blue silk in court.

SOSA OFF TO PARIS.

Bandmaster and His Men, After Playing at the Exposition, Will Tour Europe.

John Philip Sousa, "the March King," and the members of his band sailed to-day on the American line steamship St. Paul, to head France and the rest of the Continent, with melodies a march, time, ragtime and every other kind of time.

The band will play first at the American Pavilion at the Exposition, when it is dedicated on May 3. From Paris they go to Berlin, opening on May 20. A tour of Germany will follow, after which they will return to Paris in time for the unveiling of the Lafayette statue on July 4. A tour of Norway, Sweden and Holland will be made during the summer, and they will be home in October.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR ALL CATARRHAL TROUBLES.

Six Months' Treatment and Medicines for $1.00.

Every person who has read newspapers for the past fifteen years knows that Doctor Copeland is the greatest physician in America for the cure of Catarrh. His treatment for this affliction is recognized by the medical profession and the public alike as the only treatment that will positively and permanently cure this disease that annoys and distresses nine-tenths of the people living in this climate.

Doctor Copeland's wonderful success in his practice has caused others, many of them either medical adventurers or charlatans, not doctors at all, to imitate the style of his public announcements and in this manner to impose upon the credulity of the sick and suffering.

Doctor Copeland is now prepared to administer a rebuke upon those who have attempted to reap a harvest from his sowing and at the same time to demonstrate that his newest and latest treatment is infallible in the cure of Catarrh.

To do this he proposes to give to all Catarrhal sufferers an opportunity such as was never before offered in the history of medical treatment.

To all sending in by mail or applying at his office in person Doctor Copeland will furnish six (6) full months of his latest treatment, together with all necessary appliances for administering the same, for One ($1) Dollar, and will deliver the same to the address of the applicant with all charges, express or otherwise, prepaid.

For a Short Time Only.

If you live away from the City or cannot call at the office, send in $1.00 with your application for a complete Home Treatment. This will entitle you to six full months' treatment delivered to your address with all charges, express or otherwise, prepaid. The offer may be withdrawn upon one day's notice. It will positively be given to all whose applications are made or mailed before the announcement of its withdrawal in these columns.

No Free Samples, But a Complete Course.

Doctor Copeland proposes to make his rebuke upon those who are imitating his public announcements and his writings upon the subject of Catarrh and who are attempting to imitate his treatment. "The Treatment That Cures"—a severe one, and he will for a short time only teach a lesson that shall not be soon forgotten. He will entitle upon himself and his associates a pecuniary loss, but they who are sick and suffering with that annoying and distressing disease of Catarrh will be the beneficiaries. Doctor Copeland is making no direct appeal to that class that are compelled by circumstances to resort to the free dispensaries furnished by this great city in its generous liberality. All are well and healthy.

If you have these symptoms you can mark such as apply to your case and send them in with your application, or bring them with you when you call. They indicate that you have Catarrh, and you are entitled to six months' treatment for $1.

come to accept this unparalleled opportunity. His treatment has ever been within the reach of those within moderate circumstances: he has made great discoveries in the treatment of disease. Every one has been greater than the one that preceded it. Doctor Copeland's treatment, though always the best ever offered to the afflicted, has never been stationary. He has constantly been improving it. Now he has reached that point in his wonderfully successful career when he is confident that

The Newest Copeland Treatment.

It is the very perfection of all treatment for Catarrhal troubles. It is the development and climax of 15 years in the greatest medical practice numerically that the world ever saw. It is entirely different from any other treatment, and is positively a specific for this disease which is so general in this country.

It contains no cocaine, that seductive drug that many unscrupulous doctors give for relief of pain and distress in the air passages and which invariably sets up a habit that is as bad and more fatal than the disease.

It contains only medication whose constituents are recognized by the highest medical authorities as the most curative, but combined in proportions that render it absolutely a specific.

Doctor Copeland's latest and perfected treatment is equally as effective when administered at the home by the patient as it is when administered at the office. It has been prepared and arranged specifically to accommodate those who find it inconvenient or impractical to call at the office twice a week. It is applicable to all cases of Catarrh. The patient is furnished with all appliances for effectively administering the same. There is nothing hidden or equivocal about this offer. It means exactly what it says. You are welcome to investigate and inquire. It isn't a plan of "something for nothing," but it is six full months of the best medical treatment ever devised for Catarrh for one dollar.

You Are Welcome to Call at the Office.

If you can call at the office, 315 Madison Ave., cor. 42d St., you will be given FREE a personal examination and consultation regarding your case by a skilled physician, and you will be welcome to see the demonstration of that office treatment that has made Doctor Copeland's treatment famous throughout the length and breadth of the land. You will be under no obligation to begin a course of treatment, either implied or promised. But if you are satisfied that Doctor Copeland and his associate physicians can do just what they claim they can and will do, then the today call at the office. Your treatment will be only One ($1.00) Dollar.
